

Amy Verner has served the Prince William Education Association since 2000, and is currently Region C Director on the PWEA Board of Directors. She also serves as Head Association Leader at the building level.

Ms. Verner was appointed Region C Director in Spring 2016. A current appointee to the VEA Communication Committee, she advises the communication team at the state level on a variety of issues. She has also attended the state-level VEA Convention and the national-level NEA Convention as a delegate several times over the past few years.

Ms. Verner graduated from The College of William and Mary and The University of Virginia. An educator for more than seventeen years, all with PWC Schools, Amy is certified in Elementary Education and teaches 4th grade at Signal Hill Elementary. She also earned her ESOL Certification in Spring 2017.

At Signal Hill, she serves as team lead and is mentoring a first-year teacher. She also serves as piano accompanist for the school's chorus. Past duties include: Math Committee Chair, SCA Co-Sponsor, mentor, and summer math teacher focus group member.

Amy resides in Manassas, attends Trinity Episcopal Church, enjoys traveling, naps, and a nice plate of crisp bacon.
